It Was for Me

As a boy, Jesus preached in the temple, well pleasing to his Father God.
Baptised by John in the Jordan - "Son whom I love" came God's Word.
Now led by the Holy Spirit, a journey to the wilderness he made
And tempted 40 days by the devil, to every temptation he said,
"You must worship the Lord and serve only him,
His angels guard me wherever I am led. Do not put your God to the test."
Then the devil finished his tempting and fled.
Jesus now began teaching and healing, crowds flocked to hear what he said.
Some mocked and jeered, others listened, trusted and believed.
All this time, Jesus continued to obey and do as his Father willed,
At God's appointed time, triumphantly entering Jerusalem, another scripture fulfilled.
Having celebrated the Last Supper, soon after he was betrayed and tried,
And as he hung on the cruel cross obeying his Father's will,
The awful price for our sins was paid. Lord, please help us to appreciate and thank you for the great sacrifice of love you made. (Morag)

"Thank you Jesus, thank you Jesus, thank you Lord for loving me. You went to Calvary, there you died for me. You rose up from the grave, to me new life you gave. You're coming back again, and we with you shall reign. Thank you Lord for loving me."

(A Revell)

A Prayer for Today

Lord, may we appreciate what it cost for you to give your only Son for us. Let our lives show your love shining through so others will want to get to know you too.

It Is Finished

Most of us, probably all of us, go through life and leave behind us unfinished business – projects we started but didn't complete, letters we meant to write but never got round to, places we meant to go with our children, but never quite found the time.

There's only one person in history who could truly say that he finished completely and perfectly everything he set out to do. The whole purpose of Jesus' life and ministry was to go to the cross, there to give his life for ours, satisfying completely the rightful judgement of God the Father against sin.

When Jesus said on the cross, "It is finished!", it was not a cry of despair, but one of triumph. In Greek it's just one word – Tetelestai. It was the word that was stamped on a debtor's bill when they had finally made the last payment that cleared them completely of their obligations – proof that they could no longer be held liable for what they owed. It meant 'paid in full'.

Jesus, the humble, obedient servant of God, fulfilled his Father's mission perfectly. He finished the task and paid in full so that we never have to.

Hallelujah!

A Prayer for Today

Create in me a clean heart,
O God; and renew a right spirit within me.

Psalm 51:10

Next day

Lent

Lent begins on Ash Wednesday, which is traditionally a day of repentance when Christians confess their sins and profess their devotion to God. It is the period before Easter, when Christians remember Jesus's withdrawal into the wilderness for 40 days and nights. A wilderness is a rough, uninhabited or neglected region, not the sort of place where you would want to spend a long time.

The word 'Lent' originally came from the word 'lencten' meaning 'spring', a time when the days start to lengthen and things begin to spring up. You have probably noticed that happening this year. During Lent, many people decide to try to deny themselves as Jesus did and give something up that they love - perhaps chocolate, sweets or biscuits.

It is also a time to commemorate the passion and death of Jesus Christ, the Son of God, our Saviour, and an opportunity to think about all that it means to be a follower of him. (Brenda)

'Follow him, follow him, yield your life to him, he has conquered death, he is King of kings; accept the joy which he gives to those who yield their lives to him.' (C Simmons)

A Prayer for Today

Enlarge my heart with a spirit of gratitude this Lent, so that I recognise the simple gifts that lay in abundance all around me. In your precious name, I pray.
